

Reflection:

Was it hard, easy?

It was easier than the past activity, but it was difficult at first to learn how the POST function works.

What was the most challenging part of the activity?

The most challenging part was learning how POST works and how I could get the data to be saved to a .txt file

What are the key concepts/skills that you learned from this activity?

I learned more about PHP and how websites can actually be quite interactive.